3.3 The Customer may require the Contractor to remove a worker from an Outlet for reasonable cause by notice, and the Contractor shall replace that worker within two (2) days.

4. SERVICE LEVELS AND CREDITS

4.2 If an Outlet fails the Service Levels on a day, the Contractor shall re-clean the affected area within three (3) hours of notice, at no charge.

4.3 For each day on which an Outlet fails a Service Level and the Contractor does not re-clean within that time, the Customer is entitled to a credit of five per cent (5%) of that Outlet's monthly fee, up to a maximum of twenty-five per cent (25%) of that Outlet's monthly fee in any month.

4.4 Credits are deducted from the next invoice. They are the Customer's remedy for the failures to which they relate and do not limit its right to terminate for repeated or serious failure under Clause 9.

8.2 The Contractor's staff may come across personal data of the Customer's staff and customers, including through CCTV monitors and cash handling areas. The Contractor shall not copy or record such data, and shall comply with the Personal Data Protection Act 2010 in respect of any personal data it handles.

8.3 The Contractor shall keep the keys, access cards and alarm codes issued to it secure, shall report any loss immediately, and shall bear the reasonable cost of re-keying if the loss results from its failure to take reasonable care.
